An Inside Look: On-Campus Libraries

Leavey Library

Mainly used by: All students

Noise level:

Rustling papers, whispering, and foot traffic

Busy/

Crowded: This is the busiest library on campus. Each floor is normally full of students.

Hours: M-Sat 24/7 Sun 9am-12am

Size: Very large, four stories and basement

Distractions: Other students are constantly walking around, which can be distracting

Study Space:

Mostly cubicles in long rows with some sound proof study rooms available. Few books.

Gerontology Library

Mainly used by: Gerontology students, but open to all students

Noise level: Very quiet

Busy/Crowded: Usually hits a maximum of 4 students, most likely you'll be alone

Hours: M-F 9AM-5PM, closed weekends

Size: Medium

Distractions: Book stacks surround study areas, floor to ceiling windows which give full view to outside courtyard

Study Space:

Mostly natural light from the large windows, book stacks, comfortable plush chairs

Von KleinSmid Center Library

Mainly used by: Students

Noise level: Very low due to few crowds and it is a "true library setting" with book stacks.

Busy/Crowded: This is a relatively unused library.

Hours: M-Th 8AM-10PM, Fri 8AM- 8PM, Sat 9AM- 5PM, Sun 12PM- 8 PM

Phone: 213-740-1769

Size: One story, book stacks extend far enough that you can find a place to be the only one studying in that area.

Distractions: Sometimes group study sessions at large tables

Study Space: There are individual reading carrels as well as large and small tables for group work, all surrounded by book stacks.

Doheny Memorial Library
