'PROFESSOR KORTSCHAK' FACULTY SUPPORT PROGRAM

The Kortschak Center for Learning and Creativity (KCLC) wants to support you and your students throughout the academic year. Since its inception, KCLC has provided individualized academic support and skill-building to USC students through a variety of methods. We are now expanding our services to assist faculty that have scheduling conflicts during the semester.

Are you presenting at a conference or have other commitments that conflict with your teaching schedule this semester? Invite KCLC 'Professor Kortschak' into your classroom to work with your students on a variety of study skills as they review your course content!

ACTIVITIES INCLUDE:

- How to create a schedule to manage your time and increase productivity
- Discuss reading strategies customized to the types of readings for class
- Review stress management and mindfulness techniques to incorporate both inside and outside of class
- Provide guidance on improving memory and concentration during study time as well as in class
- Offer a variety of test preparation strategies utilizing your course content as the foundation
- Virtual study sessions utilizing the Pomodoro Technique, which utilizes a 30-minute cycle of 25-minute focus and 5-minute restorative break

HOW TO SCHEDULE US:

Complete our online reservation form here:

https://kortschakcenter.

wufoo.com/forms/ruunv oq1lpxmt6/

To learn more about KCLC visit our website, home to resources for faculty, staff, students and families at: kortschakcenter.usc.edu

For additional information contact KCLC Director, Julie Loppacher at loppache@usc.edu

'PROFESSOR KORTSCHAK' FACULTY SUPPORT PROGRAM

The Kortschak Center for Learning and Creativity (KCLC) wants to support you and your students throughout the Spring 2021 semester. Since its inception, KCLC has provided individualized academic support and skill-building to USC students through a variety of methods. We are now expanding our services to assist faculty that have scheduling conflicts during the semester.

Are you presenting at a conference or have other commitments that conflict with your teaching schedule this semester? Invite KCLC 'Professor Kortschak' into your classroom to work with your students on a variety of study skills as they review your course content!

ACTIVITIES INCLUDE:

- How to create a schedule to manage your time and increase productivity
- Discuss reading strategies customized to the types of readings for class
- Review stress management and mindfulness techniques to incorporate both inside and outside of class
- Provide guidance on improving memory and concentration during study time as well as in class
- Offer a variety of test preparation strategies utilizing your course content as the foundation
- Virtual study sessions utilizing the Pomodoro Technique, which utilizes a 30-minute cycle of 25-minute focus and 5-minute restorative break

HOW TO SCHEDULE US:

Complete our online reservation form here:

https://kortschakcenter.

wufoo.com/forms/ruunv

To learn more about KCLC visit our website, home to resources for faculty, staff, students and families at: kortschakcenter.usc.edu

For additional information contact KCLC Director, Julie Loppacher at loppache@usc.edu